Although Saint James Lodge is supposedly dark for the month of July, that is not entirely so. WPA will still be meeting on Tuesday mornings. The Lodge will be selling hot dogs and beans at the North Hampton bandstand on Wednesday evenings. Lodge Brothers will be attending the Annual Meeting and Semi-Public Installation of Anniversary Lodge of Research No. 175 at St. John's Lodge, Portsmouth, Thursday evening July 8th. Steak Tips Supper at 6. Reservations must be made with Secretary Mark Furber by Monday, July 5th. Tel. 603-436-1523, e-mail (preferred) webmaster@anniversarylodge.org. Cost $ 8.00. It is expected that our Marshal, Bro. Phil Reed, will be elected the next Worshipful Master.

Masons Day at Strawberry Banke is Saturday, July 10th, with doors opening at 9 AM. W.: Bro. Lee Fisher can always use more help at the William Pitt Tavern.

Yesterday evening, June 24th, I attended the Masters & Wardens meeting at Moses Paul Lodge in Dover. At that meeting it was decided that Saint James would have its visitation on Monday, August 30th, doing a Master Mason degree. That means Monday night rehearsals will start again in August. Also I was given ten tickets to sell for the Prime Rib dinner that follows the Outdoor MM degree scheduled for Newmarket on Saturday, August 14th. Price $ 15.00. After selling one to myself, I have nine left.

I spoke on the phone today with Bro. P. T. Sullivan who is recovering from a broken kneecap suffered in an automobile on Route 101. He is out of the hospital and in good spirits and thanks the Lodge for the card he received. He expects to be going to the Veterans Program on the 27th. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Also in good spirits is W.: Bro. Andy Hirst who gave this interview to newspaper reporter Shir Haberman:

Andy Hirst, a past president of the St. James Lodge of Hampton, sat collecting money from his group's sale of hotdogs, beans, cold drinks, coffee and chips.

"This is a fund-raiser for the Masonic Lodge," Hirst said. "The money goes to our scholarship program for graduates of Winnacunnet High School."

Hirst said his volunteers will be showing up for every one of the 12 concerts scheduled to take place at the bandstand on Wednesday nights through Labor Day.

"We have a blast," he said.
